

M^cGREGOR
2 0 1 0
SAUVIGNON BLANC

— SOUTH AFRICA —

~ Nestled in the folds of the Rivierzondereind mountains in the fertile Breede River Valley, the sleepy village of McGregor has remained virtually unchanged since Victorian times. The lime-rich soils of the valley floor and a perfect climate in which fruit ripens slowly and evenly ensures grapes of fine quality with great fruit concentration. From these our winemaker crafts the classically-styled wines for which the Cape is known ~